SECURE RELEASE POLICY

One of Foundations' highest duties is to ensure the safety of your child, which includes the pick-up of your child at the end of the day. To guarantee your child's safety:

1. At the beginning of the school year:
 - a. During registration or enrollment, families must provide the names and contact information of any all persons to whom their child may be released. Only these individuals will be permitted to pick up your child. All approved individuals must be adults.
2. In case of emergency:
 - a. If no previously approved person can pick up their child, families are asked to provide a confidential security code with which last minute additions can be made. To add a person, parents must call the head of school or school secretary and present both the security code and the new adult's name.
 - b. In order to officially add that adult to their Authorized Pick-Up List, parents must submit a revised version of this form to the Office. This must be done in Person at Foundations.
 - c. Please note that all those approved to pick up their child, including the parents, may be asked to present a photo ID to staff at the time of pick up.
3. No one other than the child's responsible parent or guardian will be allowed to add a person to the approved list.

The security code you provide Foundations should not be given to any other person, including those on your approved pick-up list. The code you provide Foundations should not be one easily guessed by others.

The security code I wish to use is: _____

Please memorize this code

ADULT CONDUCT POLICY

Foundations believes that the examples set by adults are essential to a child's positive behavioral development. For that reason, all adults, including parents, guardians, caregivers, adult age relatives, etc., who come in to contact with children at Foundations are expected to be a good example in both word and behavior. Two of the verses that guide our conduct policy are:

"Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22:6)

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control." (Galatians 5:22-23)

Adults are expected to use positive language whenever they are in contact with Foundations children. The use of foul or vulgar language around or directly towards a child is NOT acceptable. Adults must not threaten or intimidate children in any way, or inflict physical harm on a child in the care of Foundations. Any adult who exhibits the above behaviors will be required to meet with the Head of School and may lose the privilege of volunteering in the classroom, attending certain field trips, class parties, or other activities at the discretion of Foundations. In addition, DHR may be contacted and legal action may be taken.

Additionally, parents should not address another parent's child directly about that child's behavior. Instead, parents should discuss the incident with a teacher, and if necessary, the Head of School; the teachers have boundaries, expectations, and plans for intervention in place for the classroom. For more information, you may refer to the Guidance & Behavior Policy in your Parent Handbook, as well as the Foundations codes of conduct.
